PIERCE COLLEGE ADAPTS TO 'NEW NORMAL,' HELPS STUDENTS REACH GOALS IN SPITE OF CHALLENGING CIRCUMSTANCES

By Kate Frerichs

For many Pierce College students (and employees, too!), home is now daycare, school, and sometimes workplace, all rolled into one. As we all continue adapting to these challenging times, Pierce College is working harder than ever to continue providing students with quality educational opportunities in a safe and healthy way.

With all of our classes meeting remotely for the duration of spring quarter, our professors are ready to do what they can to help students be successful. Faculty members have created unique online experiences to help students meet learning outcomes while staying on track to reach their educational goals. Summer quarter will be completely online with the exception of certain high-priority labs and programs that cannot be effectively taught through online coursework.

For fall quarter, we will continue to be primarily online with a broader but still limited set of choices for face-to-face coursework, if conditions make it possible.

In all cases, face-to-face sessions will comply with any health authority or government restrictions, and use appropriate social distancing and personal protective equipment for both students and staff.

The college has built a number of support systems in response to COVID-19, allowing students to connect with advisors, financial aid representatives, tutors and more, through Zoom teleconferencing, phone, email and more. Students without access to a computer or internet at home have been borrowing Chromebooks and Wi-Fi hotspots from the college. We also developed a comprehensive Student Support Center on the college's website to provide students with a centralized resource center, where they can find information on how to contact our departments remotely, how to access their virtual classrooms, and even how to obtain assistance with basic needs such as housing, food, childcare and more.

A web page of Frequently Asked Questions is updated regularly to address common concerns and issues students may have.

As computer screens and other devices keep us connected during these times of social distancing, it's more important than ever to find creative ways to stay engaged. The Offices of Student Life at Pierce College Fort Steilacoom and Puyallup have been developing fun, thought-provoking virtual events to strengthen our sense of community this quarter. Be sure to follow us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram for details on virtual events and activities.

The Class of 2020 will be graduating this June under quite interesting circumstances, and we're planning an equally memorable virtual commencement ceremony to celebrate these students. This ceremony will capture the traditional commencement experience with every graduate being recognized by name with a personalized photo. We'll have the same speeches and awards, all enjoyed from our homes, with our families and friends watching in real time. These special grads will also have the option to walk in next year's commencement ceremony, if they would like.

As we continue to move through these uncertain times, we remain committed to our students' success. We look forward to continuing to create quality educational opportunities for a diverse community of learners to thrive in an evolving world. ■

FREE MONEY FOR COLLEGE: INTRODUCING THE WASHINGTON COLLEGE GRANT

Thanks to the new Washington College Grant, education and training beyond high school is becoming even more affordable for low- and middle-income students. For those who qualify, the grant guarantees that you'll get the full Washington College Grant award, eliminating wait lists and letting students start any quarter with the full grant award.

An eligible student from a family of four making about $50,500 will receive a full financial aid award that covers the cost of tuition plus state-mandated fees. Partial grants are available for families making up to the state's median family income of around $97,000 per year.

The first step toward pursuing funding is to complete a federal or state financial aid application: Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or Washington Application for State Financial Aid (WASFA). Students should submit the FAFSA as soon as possible starting Oct. 1, for the following academic year (include Pierce College, school code 005000, in your list of schools).

For more information and to access the estimated award and eligibility chart, please visit www.pierce.ctc.edu/washington-college-grant. ■

STUDENTS CAN APPLY FOR CARES ACT FUNDING TODAY!

Pierce College students who have been financially impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak now have access to emergency funding through the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act. The college has received a federal funding package to use in part to assist students with expenses related to disruptions to their education due to the pandemic. Here are a few details about how this funding will work, and how you can apply:

- Students will apply for funding via an application process, where you will describe how you have been impacted, along with your overall financial need.

- Students who have been financially impacted by the coronavirus outbreak are encouraged to apply for funding – even if you have never applied for Financial Aid before.
- These funds are similar to grants, and do not need to be repaid.
- Although there is no standard award amount for these grants, Financial Aid representatives will look into all funding options available to fill in any gaps in your financial need.
- We anticipate a high volume of applications, but expect to process them quickly.

For more information and to apply for funding, please visit <https://www.pierce.ctc.edu/student-support>. From there, expand the "Financial Support" FAQ and scroll down to find the link to the application in the CARES Act section. ■

EXCITING CHANGES ARE HERE THANKS TO CTCLINK TRANSITION

All of Washington's community and technical colleges are transitioning to ctclink, replacing an outdated computer system built in the 1980s. ctclink provides a set of common, mobile-friendly tools for students to manage their college business online, at any time. Pierce College is now fully up and running with ctclink as of May 2020.

Students now enjoy 24/7 access to an online student center, where they can register for classes, view transcripts, obtain messages and notifications, review and accept financial aid awards, and much more.

The college is prepared to support students and employees through this transition, and is offering a variety of training and educational opportunities related to ctclink. We expect this new integrated technology will be a valuable asset in helping students achieve their educational goals.

Current students, don't forget to check your student e-mail for important information and instructions related to ctclink. ■

NEW! CATIA 3DExperience Design Essentials

3DExperience (3DX) is the latest generation of CATIA. This is the version that all aircraft companies will be switching to in the near future. Although there are many similarities with CATIA V5, there are also many improvements and changes to make it easier to design with. The biggest change is that all data is now stored in the cloud, allowing easier team work and access from any compatible computer. We have made this easy to learn at your pace using our downloadable CAD Simulator software (PC Win8 and above) which will mimic 3DX for our training scenario. Training examples were developed by experts in aircraft engineering and tooling design. The course covers an introduction, assembly design, sketcher and part design.

Online access for 1 year.

All students are advised that the Pierce College Marketing & Communications Office takes photographs and shoots videos throughout the year which may include images (as well as audio/video recordings of voices) of members of the student body and reserves the right to use them for publicity, promotional and marketing purposes. The College also reserves the right to take photographs of campus facilities and scenes, events, faculty, staff and students for promotional purposes in any areas on campus or at any Pierce College-sponsored event off campus where subjects do not have a normal and reasonable expectation of privacy. All such photographs and videos are defined as "Directory Information" and are the property of Pierce College and may be used for Pierce College promotional purposes (e.g. electronic and printed publications, websites, classroom use, college ads, etc.) without prior permission of the subjects.

As a general practice, there is no attempt to collect individual photo release forms from students. Instead, we make the assumption that Pierce College students are our best resources for marketing the College and that they will welcome involvement in these activities. However, students who do not wish to have their images/voices used for this purpose must stipulate this in writing to Marketing & Communications at the beginning of the quarter. It is also expected that such students will excuse themselves from photo/video sessions and inform the Pierce College photographer/videographer that they do not wish to be included.
